Eight Hundred Lives Lost in Japan.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 19.—The steamer City of Peking arrived last night from China and Japan. She brings an account of a tidal wave in which nearly eight hundred persons lost their lives and about 2,000 houses were washed away. On Sept. 11, the same day Yokohama was severely damaged by a typhoon, a violent wind and rain-storm set in at Wazungu and Aikchen. By 2 o'clock the sea had risen several feet above ordinary height, and just after night-fall the waves mounted to a great height, washed the houses and embankments and leveling the buildings near the shore. Shortly afterward a wave fifteen feet higher than the highest of those that had preceded it, came upon a great rock, washed away the remaining portions of the embankment and carrying with it nearly all the houses of the various valleys along the coast. The waves came suddenly and unexpectedly that the inhabitants had not time to escape, and at Okubo, in Oguri-Sinider, all the houses, twenty-three in number, were washed away, and out of ninety inhabitants fifty-four lost their lives. At Jitarokro forty houses were washed away, and about fifty out of a population of 350 were killed. At Yodai-Mura 350 houses were washed away, and 628 of the population of 3,700 were killed. At Tolo-Hara, a town containing 220 houses and a population of 1,390, ten houses were broken up and ten persons perished.

In addition to those already enumerated, 300 bodies have been found, and there are yet 300 persons missing. The Emperor has sent $1,500 and $500, respectively, for relief of the sufferers.

Where Republicanism is a Crime.

JACKSON, Miss., Oct. 19.—The Republican State executive committee met here today to consider the withdrawal of Gen. Jas. R. Chalmers from the head of the State ticket. Chalmers had not here, but understood that he wrote a letter to the committee declining to make the canvass for Governor. The committee issued the following:

As Republicans of Mississippi, we are compelled to withdraw our State ticket. We knew that our votes would be stolen, and we knew that the people, but we hoped in the larger towns and cities at least, the semblance of free speech might still remain to us, but now we are not at all allowed to discuss or protest. We do not especially to go before the whole people of the State and challenge the democracy to a comparison of principles and records.

Our course has always been conservative. When the constitution of 1875 was drafted, we were the State of Mississippi. The constitution of the United States guarantees to each State a republican form of government. Mississippi is governed by a minority of the people, and we appeal to our country for redress. The constitution that we adopted in the only one in the South so satisfactory that it has not been changed. Our laws stand substantially unchanged, and we are not, but we are Republicans, and this is our offense.

That we are not actuated by cowardice in withdrawing from the contest, is shown by our past. For fourteen years we have been the champions of the people, and we have been marked by the blood of our slain—not only the well-known leaders who were killed at the head of the column, but the faithful followers who were known only in the cabins of the lowly.

We refer not only to such well-known leaders as Kenner and Copeland, Clinton and Carrington, Mahall and Vicksburg, Yazoo City and Leflore, but to the nameless killing by creek and bayou, on highway and byway. These are the Democratic arguments which crush us. We can do no more. We dare no longer carry our tattered and blood-stained Republican flag. We appeal to the Nation.

A national law and honor but a delusion and a snare! When we rely upon the guarantee of the national constitution, do we but lean upon a broken reed? If so, announce the policy, and acquit us of further effort.

A Suit Over Valuable Church Properties.

CHAMBERSBURG, Pa., Oct. 19.—An equity suit was begun here today, between two factions of the United Brethren Church, which has been prepared as a test case, and will in all likelihood decide the ownership of hundreds of valuable church properties in this and other States. The suit is between the rival claimants to the church property in this section, and the test case has been made upon the church property at Greenville. The complainants in the bill are those who uphold the action of the majority of the General Conference of the United Brethren Church in the United States, which was held at New York, Pa., in May, 1889, and the defendants are the seceders from that conference and their representatives here, who withdrew on account of the adoption of the revised constitution, which allowed members of secret societies to become members of the church. The anti-secret society faction has caused considerable trouble in the section, and the State, have asserted their claims by force in half a dozen instances, and serious trouble has occurred at Clay Hill and Greenville. The brethren came to blows in those places, barricaded the churches against each other, and a number of arrests were made, but all have agreed to abide by the result of the present equity suit, and to settle the criminal prosecutions. Similar suits have been brought in Ohio, Illinois and Canada. But the one here is regarded as the most important of all, and one which will be regarded as decisive all over the United States. The best legal talent in this section is engaged by the factions, and the case will attract much attention.

Fatal Railway Wreck.

CONNELSVILLE, Pa., Oct. 19.—A most disastrous wreck in which two men were killed and a large number injured, three quite seriously, occurred today near Confluence, Pa., on the Confluence and Oakland railroad. A new line to connect with the Baltimore & Ohio road at that place. This morning a construction train started out with 300 laborers, who were working on the line far from Confluence. Engineer William Thornley was pushing his train at a slow rate of speed, and a car in the front jumped the track. The second car contained two men, the foreman and a negro laborer. In the next car were about a dozen men, and the third car was loaded with rails. When the first car jumped the track the third car crashed into the two front ones, and the others piled on top of them. The men in the second car, foreman James Fitzpatrick, of Wilmington, Del., and James Williams, colored, of Snakesville, Pa., were crushed to death and horribly mangled. Most of the laborers in the second car escaped, only three being injured seriously, although a large number sustained slight cuts and bruises. Of the seriously injured, George Hindmarch will die. He was otherwise injured, and one leg is broken in three places. J. W. Tierney and brakeman Ira Stearn had their arms broken, and were otherwise injured, but will recover. The cause of the accident is not yet known.

Royal Marriages.

LONDON, Oct. 19.—The report which is again current that the Czarowitz will marry a sister of the German Emperor is not credited, partly because of the religious differences existing. The wife of the Crown Prince of Russia must adopt the orthodox faith, though German princesses have made no difficulty of this when the Russian throne was in question. Still those who have contracted such marriages were not of the royal or imperial family. Russian opinion shows little or no toleration in this respect.

The Russian ritual, to which the Czar's Majesty is attached, there are still visible marks upon the walls of its prior dedication to the Roman Catholic Church in the case of King Otto. The coming marriage of the Duke of Sparta, however, will lend the color of truth to the current report, as it is understood that the Princess Sophia will marry to the orthodox church, and it is settled by the constitution that any children of the marriage are to be of the national faith. One of the great questions of the future will be whether the orthodox church shall be centered in Russia, making the Czar its head, or be strictly national in the cases professing that faith. The strong feeling of the Greeks is, and will be, to preserve and to extend the national character and control of their church.

Inquest Over the Mt. Auburn Victims.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 19.—At the coroner's inquest this morning in the case of the Mt. Auburn inclined-plane accident, which occurred on Friday, the following witnesses were called upon to testify. Frank Kamman, a conductor on the Mt. Auburn line, was at the head of the plane, waiting for the truck to come up. He said the truck was within fifty or seventy-five feet of the top of the plane. I noticed that it was coming at full speed. Charles Goble, a porter on the line, was pushing with strength on the brakes and cut-off, and shouted, "For God's sake open those gates!" John Hoffman, a motorman on the line, was on the top of the hill. When I first noticed the car coming up the incline I remarked that it was running much faster than usual, and looking into the car, Goble pulled the cut-off throttle as far back as he could get it, and place his feet on the brakes with his eye fixed on the truck. As the car dashed toward the bottom, where it struck and flew to pieces like a bomb, looking toward Goble I noticed that he was pallid with agitation. I went over to him and he exclaimed, "What have I done? I replied, you did not help it. Charley, you did your duty."

Other witnesses corroborated the story told by Hoffman, and the jury adjourned until next Monday morning.

Death of King Luis, of Portugal.

LISBON, Oct. 19.—The King of Portugal, who has been ill for some time, died today. His death occurred at 11 o'clock this morning.

The Duke of Braganza, eldest son of the King, who succeeds to the throne, will assume the title of Carlos I. The Premier waited on Don Carlos and presented the resignation of the late king, which the King declined to accept. The elections of members of the Chamber of Deputies will proceed to-morrow, as fixed before the death of King Luis, as there is now no time to postpone them.

The Queen was present when the King died, and kissed her husband's corpse. She embraced Don Carlos, and said: "Bless you as monarch. I hope you will prove as good a king as you have always been a son."

The new King has issued a proclamation in which he promises faithful observance of the political institutions of the country, and says that he will follow the example of his fathers and try to merit the confidence of the people. He swears to maintain the Catholic religion, the constitutional laws, and the integrity of the kingdom. He declares it to be his pleasure that the present Ministers continue in office.

The Opening of the Reliefstarg.

[Copyright, 1889, by the New York Associated Press.]

BERLIN, Oct. 19.—A telegram announces the arrival of Emperor William and the Empress at Monza, at 10 o'clock this morning. They were met by the Italian king and queen at the station and drove with them to the castle, an escort of cavalry and troops lining the route. To-morrow an official report about the burglary will be received. The penalty is death. The jury were only out of the room for a few minutes. Alexander was at the head of a gang of petty thieves and burglars in this country who had been about this burglary for a long time. In all about $1,000 worth of goods were stolen.

Attempt to Kill a Police Commissioner.

DAYTON, O., Oct. 19.—This afternoon some unknown person opened the office door of Police Commissioner Richard C. Anderson, fired a shot at him, wounding him in the thigh. The man escaped, but he was seen by several persons and described. A detective was sent out to find him, but he has not yet been located. The description of the would-be murderer, and he will be held. Mr. Anderson is a leading citizen of Dayton.

Held to $1,000.

BIDDEFORD, Me., Oct. 19.—Cyrus P. Berry, an employee in the water power machine shop, received information to-day of the death of an uncle in California, by which he will come into possession of a million dollars. The deceased uncle was Silas Emerson, of that State. Mr. Berry, who went to the State of Maine, has been in the time of the gold discovery. He leaves property estimated to be worth $100,000.

Died at the Age of 107.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

ROCKPORT, Ind., Oct. 19.—Benjamin Moore, the oldest citizen in southern Indiana, died here today. He was 107 years of age. He lived until Christmas he would have celebrated his 108th birthday. Mr. Moore came to this country when it was a wilderness.

Congressman Whitthorne Dying.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 19.—Congressman W. C. Whitthorne, of the Seventh Tennessee district, died at one time chairman of the committee on naval affairs in the House of Representatives, is lying at the point of death at his home in Columbia, Mo. Mr. Whitthorne has been dangerously ill for several weeks.

Expelled for Just Cause.

PARIS, Oct. 19.—The Cabinet has expelled M. Laisant, the Boulangist deputy, from his position as an officer in the territorial army. This action is due to a statement made by M. Laisant during the recent electoral campaign that he would not take the field for France under the present government.

Concession of a Slave-Holding Prince.

ZANZIBAR, Oct. 19.—The Sultan has given the British consul here a written promise that all children born in the dominions after the first of January next shall be free.

kept her here under a physician's care until she tragically ended her life. Administrator Gerzitz had her trunk sent to Winona, and last night they were taken to the county treasurer's office for examination. The trunk was opened, and a false bottom in the first trunk, and investigation showed that there was sewed up in cloth in the double bottom the death and horribly mangled body of a woman. The investigation was continued to-day until the sum of $12,117 was found, all but $1,000 being in gold.

Inter-Seminary Missionary Alliance.

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—The third day's session of the American Inter-Seminary Missionary Alliance convention began this morning. The first paper was read by A. M. Elliott, of McKim's Seminary, in the absence of Mr. Franklin Pierce Lynch, of the International Medical Missionary Society, who had prepared the article on "The Work of the Medical Missionary."

"The Relation of Faith to Missionary Success" was the subject of the second paper, read by Mr. Edward L. Smith, of Yale Seminary. Both papers were discussed at length. Rev. Dr. Shedd, a missionary lately returned from Persia, occupied the remaining time of the morning session, with a talk on "Missionary Life in Persia."

At the afternoon session the work of the convention ended. The committee on resolutions reported in favor of supporting the inter-Seminary mission, and recommending the appointment of lay missionaries, and especially medical missionaries, by the mission boards, deprecating all selfish motives and urging harmony among denominations in missionary work.

Both papers were discussed at length. Mr. Hilliard, of the Chicago Seminary, presented the following resolution for adoption: Whereas, the United States law forbidding Chinese immigration is hurtful to missionary work in China.

Resolved, That the United States Congress be requested to repeal said law.

The resolution fell like a bomb among the delegates, and before the chairman had time to call for remarks a half-dozen delegates had risen to their feet, each eager for a resolution. The principal argument used against the resolution was that it would do no good, and would give the newspapers capital for gossip.

Huge Theft of Mexican Bonds.

CITY OF MEXICO, Oct. 19.—The two Republics (newspaper), will to-morrow contain an account of the theft of $2,000,000 in interior debt bonds from the fifth section of the national Treasury.

It is stated that one thousand bonds of the national debt of $2,000 each, with a cash value of over $1,000,000, were stolen. They are reported to have been placed in London. Several persons have been arrested in connection with the robbery.

General Ninioja, Secretary of War, states that the rumor of the robbery is true, but that the bonds were not signed by Senor Espinosa, federal Treasurer, says that the robbery is not so bad as reported. The particulars will probably be published in the official journal on Monday. The bonds were in books, and it is the custom of the Treasury that no bonds are ever signed in book until issued.

How a Claim Agent Lost $22,000.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—A prominent claim agent in Washington is just now making a sad confession. He has lost $22,000 on account of his lack of faith in a single Indian. For many years he represented a large claim before the Interior Department, and he was a successful man. He had been in Washington to ascertain how matters were getting along. He happened to run short of funds and asked the lawyer to loan him $2,000. He was told that he had no money, and he failed to do so. The Indian said nothing, but called upon the late Congressman E. John Ellis, and transferred the $2,000 to his hands. Ellis did nothing, but secured the insertion of his name as the attorney of record on the files of the Interior Department. A few days later he received a check for $22,000 from the Treasury that no bonds are ever signed in book until issued.

The Latest Cronin Sensation.

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—No new jurors were secured to-day in the Cronin trial. Three peremptory challenges were used by each side. The jury was not selected, and the trial remaining after the late twenty-four hours to date 890 talesmen have failed to pass muster.

Among the sensations printed here to-day was the effect that a pig had been discovered, having for its object the rescue, by force, from Judge McConnell's court, some day next week, of Martin Burke and Patrick O'Sullivan, who were being held awaiting trial with O'Sullivan, Beggs and Knuzze. It is said that a number of outside Clan-na-Gael men are in the city for the purpose of securing the release of the prisoners. Elaborate preparations have been taken by the authorities to prevent any surprise, and all the strangers are being shadowed.

Condition of Injured Passengers.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 19.—The passengers who were injured in the wreck on the A. T. & S. railway here, Oct. 18, are all recovering. They were brought here to-day by Mrs. Mary C. Dankler, of Lamar, Mo., was still unconscious when she was taken from the train. She was brought to the city hospital, where the physicians are doing all that little hope for her recovery. Miss Mary Lupton, of Keokuk, Ia., and E. B. Almen, of Elgin, Ill., were taken to the Sisters' Hospital, where the physicians are doing all that little hope for her recovery. Miss Mary Lupton's injuries are not dangerous, but the others who were injured were not badly enough hurt to prevent them continuing their journeys.

manent power would be secured by a party that outraged the fundamental principles upon which every civilized society rested.

German Oppression of Workmen.

[Copyright, 1889, by the New York Associated Press.]

BERLIN, Oct. 19.—Westphalian manufacturers claim the right to dismiss workmen at pleasure, while demanding from the workmen the notice of intention to quit, and power to withhold salaries of workmen who leave without giving notice. The manufacturers also ask for the suppression of the workmen's savings banks. The mining companies have joined in refusing to employ men dismissed or leaving of their own accord, and in boycotting publicans and persons who do business in their places. These oppressions have exasperated workmen throughout the country.

Chili's Friendly Act.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Assistant Secretary Batchelor said yesterday afternoon that the action of Chili in placing imported machinery, agricultural implements, tools, copper, iron and other things on a free list was a most friendly act. "It opens up," he added, "a fine market for our products, and if we are prompt to avail ourselves of the opportunity it will be of immense value to us. Of course there is some selfish motive in all these things, and Chili's motive is to encourage progress and development, but I have no doubt that it is inspired also by a friendly feeling toward us."

Murphy Meetings at Peru.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

PERU, Ind., Oct. 19.—The interest in the grand temperance movement in this city, which Sunday last, and will continue until Wednesday next, is unabated. The attendance nightly is larger than ever, and requires the use of room double the capacity of the opera-house to accommodate the people desiring admission. Thus far over 1,500 persons have signed the pledge. To-morrow is expected to be the banner day of the movement. In the morning Mr. Murphy occupies the pulpit of the First Presbyterian Church, and in the afternoon and evening holds mass-meetings in the opera-house.

Horseback to Be Sold as Beef.

LONDON, Oct. 19.—Yesterday two men were arrested and fined at Newcastle for cruelty to a number of horses which they were pulling on board of a German steamer, lying at that port. The animals resisted the attempts of the men to drive them on board, and were beaten and prodded until they were covered with blood. In the course of the examination of the men before the magistrate it was ascertained that the horses had been sold to a firm of meat-dealers in Germany, where they were to be slaughtered and sold as beef.

Work of Reforming Boys and Girls.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—The President has written a letter to the chairman of the Boy's and Girls' National Home and Employment Association, in which he says: "I have read, with great interest, the address presented to me this morning by the committee on the Boy's and Girls' National Home and Employment Association, now in session in this city. The objects of the association have my warmest sympathy. They show a true and noble spirit of self-sacrifice, and a deep interest in the welfare of the nation. The association is in the appropriate sphere of each, and I am proud to see that the boys and girls of this country are being trained in the noblest of virtues, and that the habits of vice and pauperism have become settled."

Governor Forsaker III.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 19.—Governor Forsaker is quite sick and confined to his bed at the executive mansion. He was attacked with a mild form of dysentery on Thursday afternoon after his return from Cleveland, where he delivered an address. He was able to be at his office in the State house, however, until Friday evening, when he became more seriously ill. His physicians are doing all that little hope for her recovery. Miss Mary Lupton, of Keokuk, Ia., and E. B. Almen, of Elgin, Ill., were taken to the Sisters' Hospital, where the physicians are doing all that little hope for her recovery. Miss Mary Lupton's injuries are not dangerous, but the others who were injured were not badly enough hurt to prevent them continuing their journeys.

Reformed Church Synod.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 19.—The committee on missions of the Reformed Synod to-day reported that the receipts of the last year aggregated $19,576, being slightly in excess of the previous year, while the number of churches organized was 10, and the number of places of worship was 10. The synod is to place the missions under the care of the General Synod's board after Jan. 1, 1890, was discussed at length, but no definite action was taken. Rev. Philip Schaff, D. D., of N. Y., who was received into the synod in Zion Church forty-four years ago, gave the synod the benefit of his reminiscences this afternoon.

Aged Wife-Murderer Sentenced.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

PORT WAYNE, Ind., Oct. 19.—The trial of John Barrett, for the murder of his wife, which began last Monday, came to an end to-day, when the jury, after being out for four days, returned a verdict of guilty of manslaughter, and fixed the punishment at twenty-one years in the penitentiary. The murderer is seventy-five years old, and as he was feeble, the chances are that he will not live to complete his term.

Coming Fight Between Light-Weights.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Oct. 19.—Bill McMr. the champion light-weight, received a letter to-day from his backer, Alf Kennedy, of Streator, conveying the information that Kennedy had forwarded $5,000 New York money to him, and that he was to fight with Jim McCarroll, the preliminary negotiations for which are now completed. The fight will be held at Streator, Ill., and the combat will occur in the United States not far from the Mexican line.

Gored to Death by a Bull.

WICHITA, Kan., Oct. 19.—John Conlter, a farmer living near Derby, this county, was killed by a bull to-day. The bull attacked him in a field, and gored him in a fatal manner. One John Conlter, Conlter's throat below the chin, the end protruding from his mouth. He was dragged some distance in this manner before the horn became loosened from his head.

Will Be Hanged for Burglary.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Oct. 19.—Bert Alexander, colored, who was arrested ten days ago for burglary, was tried in the Criminal Court to-day. He was found guilty this morning, and the penalty is death. The jury were only out of the room for a few minutes. Alexander was at the head of a gang of petty thieves and burglars in this country who had been about this burglary for a long time.
